Sheryl Dillard is one the most empowering and inspiring speakers of our day. She proclaims a high octane message of deliverance. Sheryl evangelizes with high risk communities in mind. In 1997 she conducted a 6 week revival in Gallatin, TN, with Bishop M. Jackson of the Church of God of Prophecy. Many diseases were medically reported as healed and lives restored to Christ. As an educator Sheryl is contracted by Domestic Violence Agencies, Education Associations, Churches and Civic rganizations for training, conferences and workshops. Sheryl lobbied in Washington, DC for Domestic Violence, and was invited by Lynn Rosenthal, director of National Network to End Domestic Violence, to sing and share her story. She is an entrepreneur and Spoken Word Poet and Psalmist.

Ms. Dillard's mentorship is under Pastor William, and Elaine "Dr." Matthews, of New Covenant Christian Ministries, of Garner, NC. She is a contributing writer for Beautiful in His Image Internet Magazine, BIHI.org. A former host of Woman to Woman WCLY, 1550, and featured co-host on Keeping it Real WAUG 750, with M. Lamont Cooper, Pastor of Millennium Revival Center, COGIC in Raleigh, NC.

Her story was featured in the Charlotte Women's Magazine, 2000, and on Crisis in the Convoy, hosted by Dr. James Seymour, Head of Department, Philosophy & Religion at St. Augustine's College on public television (WAUG and NC State University). Sheryl was a trainer for the St. Augustine's College Freshman Orientation Class and (R.E.C.A.S.S.T. Mentoring Program). She has performed her phenomenal Spoken Word at Tennessee Black Caucus, TBN, Bobby Jones Gospel, Vanderbilt University, Fisk University, Tennessee State University Honors Program, Wilson County Youth Emergency Shelter, Lebanon, TN, Turney's Center Maximum Prison for Men, and Tennessee's Women Prison.

She has a Bachelors of Science in Organizational Management, with a back ground in Communications, certifications as a Domestic Violence Trainer, and too many accolades to mention.

Sheryl is a mentor, friend, sister, mother and woman of God, her prayer is, "if my private worship is worthy of public participation, then let it be done unto me Lord, according to your will."

Staying Away From the Enemy

S.A.F.E will train educators how to identify students K-12 grades, college and university levels who may be in homes experiencing or affected by sexual and domestic abuse.

Facts: In United States there are thirty-two known sexually transmitted diseases. One in two girls are sexually abused before 18 and one in four boys. According to UNC, at Chapel Hill the highest of those infected are students 15-19. Black females are at the highest risk for HIV, CDC, 2002.

Principles: S.A.F.E. was developed for equipping young men and women ages 12-21 wholesome principles that will enable them to live healthy and safe lives.

- S. Soundness of mind, putting self-first no sex until marriage
- A. Attitude, respect for authority
- F. Freedom (don't take it for granted)
Friendship (a covenant word)
- E. Enemy anything that deters destiny and personal goals excellence (exemplify it in your character)

Issues of Life Conference

Proverbs 4:23

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

In 1995, Sheryl Dillard went public, sharing her personal survival of six years of habitual childhood sexual abuse, losing her virginity at the early age of three. Later she would tell her story of domestic violence as a Christian woman.

In 1999 Sheryl was ordained and conducted her first I of L Conference. In 2000, she received an honorary Doctorate of Divinity. The conference brought laity and leadership together from around the country; civic organizations, and non profits alike. The conference provided biblical resolve and viewpoint for victims, predators, and those wanting to know more about this crime.

Season of Hope Transitional Services

This program was established to assist women at least 18 years of age, with monetary funding. These services are for women who are in the second phase of leaving a sexual or domestic violence environment. Eligible persons need to be referred by a domestic violence agency, church or civic organization.

Season of Hope funding is solely provided by donations, grants, and monies raised by the foundation. There is no discrimination to those of any ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, academic, or economic status. Donations maybe submitted by contacting the foundation.

The Sheryl Dillard Foundation is a multi-purpose organization that seeks to meet the needs of women and children in the 21st century.
